ABOUT THE FILM

Three eighty-year-old men embark on a road trip in order to fulfill the dying wish of a lifelong friend. In spite of the disapproval of their families and the limitations of their advanced age, they find themselves involved in a series of comical misadventures and meet a cast of colourful characters. Their journey alters their sense of self and their place in the world. There is, indeed, life after 80!

Director: Jack Zagha Kababie

Starring: José Carlos Ruiz, Luis Bayardo, Eduardo Manzano, Pedro Weber
